THE PARISH BANNER

The first Parish in Durham was founded in 1880 by Bishop Cheshire who was in Deacon's orders at the time.

Bishop Cheshire's arms were three fusils on a cross bar. Upon these arms are imposed the symbols of the Patron, St. Philip, Deacon, who is known chiefly for baptising the Ethiopian eunuch. His symbols are the DALMATIC, the vestment peculiar to a deacon, and the SHELL, symbol of baptism.

Philip the Deacon is known also as Philip the Evangelist to distinguish him from Philip the Apostle who was one of the Twelve. This Philip was one of Seven Deacons whose appointment is recorded in Acts 6. Concerned to proclaim the Gospel to the Gentiles, he was successful in winning over the Samaritans from belief in the sorceries of Simon Magus to Christianity (Acts 8:9-13). After the conversion and baptism of the Ethiopian eunuch (Acts 8:26-39) Philip went on a missionary tour from Ashdod northwards. He settled at Caesarea, with his four daughters who were noted for their prophetic powers, and here he gave hospitality to St. Paul (Acts 21:8). Uncertainty shrouds the latter years of Philip. One tradition makes him Bishop of Tralles, in Lydia.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

The Church is not called to act, but to be. That little phrase, "not called to act, but to be," is so short that it slips by us too fast, and we are liable to miss it altogether. Besides that, we are so used to "doing" that we are confused when someone raises the issue of "being." We are usually more likely to be able to answer the question "What should the Church do?" instead of "What should the Church be?"

But our DOING is always going to be confused and somewhat unfulfilling unless it springs from our BEING. BEING the Church is then what our task REALLY is. That is what the Episcopal Churchwomen, along with the rest of St. Philip's Parish, is called to consider in every area of life and program.

To BE the Church we must first make sure everything we are about measures up to what we mean when we say "Christ is Lord." This means centering around our common faith in the saving Lord is the spring out of which we understand everything else. Second, we must constantly insure that the quality of life among us measures up to the standards of His Lordship. What really happens when we get together? Are we really sharing what the Gospel can give us? Or are we simply another adjunct to the social system which has merely a little ecclesiastical veneer?

I commend this kind of thinking (and praying) to the Episcopal Churchwomen during the year ahead. Let your life take its meaning and sense of being from the Lord and His Life, and then you will KNOW what to do. Even what you are already doing will have new meaning.

Thomas E. Bollinger

Remember thy servants, O Lord, according to the favor which thou bearest unto thy people, and grant that, increasing in knowledge and love of thee, they may go from strength to strength, in the life of perfect service, in thy heavenly kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

PRAYERS

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, bless, we pray Thee, our work for the extension of Thy Kingdom, and make us so thankful for the precious gift to us of Thy beloved Son, that we may pray fervently, labor diligently, and give liberally to make Him known to all nations as their Saviour and their King through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

GUIDANCE

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favor and further us with Thy continual help; that is all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy Holy Name, and finally, by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

UNITED THANK OFFERING

O God, who art the hope of all peoples everywhere, we thank Thee for the outpourings of love and generosity which have enabled us to respond to some of the world's needs in places far and near; guide us as we face changing times and new frontiers; keep our hearts thankful and our vision clear as we seek to fulfill our vocation and ministry as members of the body of Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Pansy Sale

General Chairman - Mrs. L. A. Hughes
Mrs. Hendrick Zweerink

For many years the Episcopal Churchwomen of St. Philip's have sold pansies to neighbors and other friends. Orders for white, yellow, blue and mixed plants are taken by all Churchwomen in September. Plants will arrive the end of October.

Christmas Bazaar

The Bazaar is another opportunity to realize, individually and collectively, a part of the Episcopal Churchwomen's Prayer in action "Almighty God . . . make us so thankful . . . that we may pray fervently, labor diligently, and give liberally to make Him known . . ."
